The Association of National Stakeholders in Traffic Safety Education (ANSTSE) was established in 2010 to maintain and, when necessary, upgrade the NTDETAS. ANSTSE is an Association of voluntary Stakeholders dedicated to identifying and promoting areas of common ground for the improvement of driver education. The latest edition of the NTDETAS was in 2023, revised by ANSTSE, with assistance from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA), to define the future of driver education and improve the delivery of driver education programs nationally.

Model Training Curriculum for the Teaching Task Instructor Preparation Program

About this Course

The Model Instructor Training Curriculum is designed to provide instructor candidates with the teaching and learning theory for classroom and behind-the-wheel instructional methodology.

Containing model lesson plans and visuals, the Curriculum includes three parts:

1. The Fundamental Concepts of Teaching and Learning,
2. Teaching and Learning Theories for Classroom, and
3. Teaching and Learning Theories for Behind-the-Wheel (BTW).

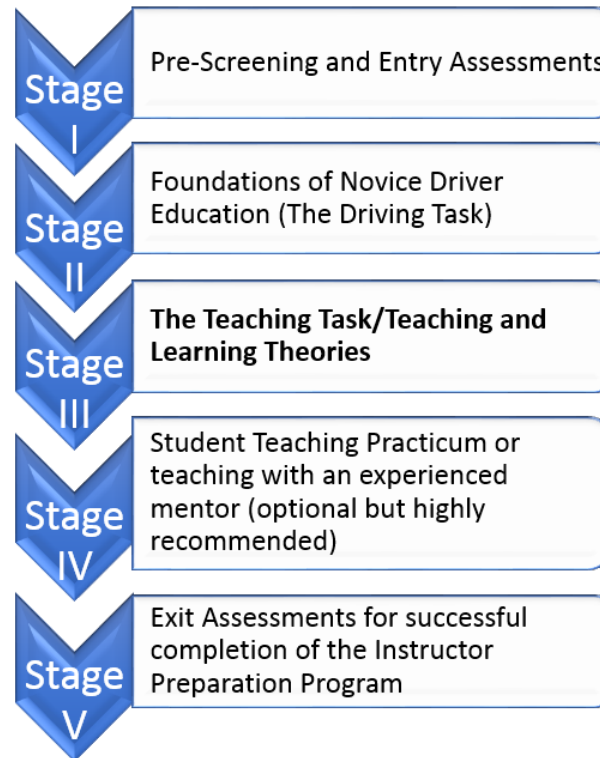

The curriculum also includes supplementary modules on Advanced Driver Assistance Systems (ADAS).

1. Overview of ADAS for Driver Educators
2. Common ADAS Safety Features and How They Work
3. Promoting the Safe & Effective Use of ADAS through Driver Education

Instructor Training System

To assist in developing a quality instructor training system, five stages were identified as essential for States and/or programs to successfully train driver education instructors.

The model training curriculum that has been developed assists in teaching Stage III The Teaching Task.

Who can Teach this Course?

This course should be taught by qualified master instructors who have:

- received training on how to utilize these materials,
- a deep understanding of the entire course and experience that supports its objectives and topics, and
- prior instructor training teaching experience.

How a State/Program can Use these Materials

 The materials and other resources are available for free download at www.anstse.info. States/programs may duplicate the materials for use and distribution to participants. State- and program-specific content may be added. Each Stage is a critical component and each may require course development by the State or program.
