

Preliminary Analysis

- Analyzing State statutes and rules governing novice driver education standards to understand the State's current status and where the State meets, exceeds, or does not meet the NTDETAS.

Post Analysis

- Determining how the State may adopt the NTDETAS without the need to adopt statutes and/or rules.
- Determining how to establish short-term, mid-term, and long-term goals in meeting the NTDETAS.
- Determine funding potential from federal, State and tuition sources for driver education programs.
- Providing samples of recent student programs for classroom and behind the wheel from other States and organizations.

Testimonials

"We were extremely pleased with the overall on-site educational opportunities process and would highly recommend the ANSTSE services to other organizations"
- Gary Poeducbicky, New Jersey

"The team provided guidance that guided us in working collaboratively with key state agencies, legislators and driver education stakeholders to improve the quality of our driver education program statewide."
- Reggie Flythe, North Carolina

ANSTSE

- The Association of National Stakeholders in Traffic Safety Education (ANSTSE) was established in 2010 to maintain and, when necessary, upgrade the NTDETAS.
- ANSTSE is an Association of voluntary Stakeholders dedicated to identifying and promoting areas of common ground for the improvement of driver education.
- The NTDETAS were revised in 2023 by ANSTSE with assistance from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) to define the future of driver education and improve the delivery of driver education programs nationally.

State Educational Opportunities

For States seeking to strengthen their Driver Education Programs

Conducted by

ANSTSE

What are Educational Opportunities?

- Is available, at no cost, for any State wanting to meet any components of the Novice Teen Driver Education and Training Administrative Standards (NTDETAS).
- May be conducted prior to a NHTSA State Assessment / Peer Review.
- Can provide a preliminary analysis of a State's driver education program.
- A State may then utilize highway safety funds, or other funds, to conduct a NHTSA State Assessment / Peer Review based on the recommendations in the NTDETAS.
- ANSTSE can provide post analysis educational opportunities after a NHTSA State Assessment / Peer Review to assist with meeting the recommendations given.
- Can be provided either onsite or offsite.
- Facilitated by the ANSTSE Secretariat and conducted by experts in driver education.

Offsite Educational Opportunities

- ANSTSE can provide education remotely and can also refer states or individuals to Association members for additional educational opportunities.
- Can be provided through telephone calls, web meetings, e-mail with ANSTSE Secretariat, ANSTSE members, other experts in the field, and other State contacts.
- An Association website, www.anstse.info has been developed to assist in providing educational opportunities.

Onsite Educational Opportunities

- The ANSTSE Secretariat will assign one to two experts to travel to the State to possibly meet with State officials.
- ANSTSE will cover the travel expenses for experts to provide educational opportunities.
- The meeting will be approximately 2 ½ days in length. The first two days will be to meet with the State officials and the half day will be a report out on the recommendations provided.
- A report will be submitted detailing the visit, recommendations provided and suggested actions to undertake.

Requesting Educational Opportunities

- Provided by contacting the ANSTSE Secretariat and sending a formal letter of request from the State.
- The letter should explain the goals of the educational opportunities and what your State would like to gain from the educational opportunities.
- If there are certain areas you would like to focus on (i.e. instructor training, program administration), include that in the letter as well.
- Send letter of request to:
